Welcome to Moody’s Diner.

We have continued to be a Moody family tradition since our beginning in 1927. Moody’s founders, Percy & Bertha Moody started it all when they opened 3 small cabins on the top of the hill charging $1 a night. They then opened a small Tea Room (now known as Aunt Letta’s House) to serve dinner to their guests and those traveling up and down Maine’s coast. The following year a lunch wagon was opened and later moved down the hill when Rt. 1 was re-routed in 1934. That same lunch wagon was expanded many, many times to become the diner that we now know today.

The Diner is still owned and operated by the children, grandchildren and great-grand-children of Percy & Bertha. And, a good 2 dozen of them are still involved or employed at the diner today. We would like to thank you for visiting. We hope that you enjoy your time here and that it feels... like coming HOME!
